1. POLICY

ACCM Pty Ltd RTO-45886-CRICOS-04038J will ensure that students are supported in their Language, Literacy, and Numeracy needs through the completion of their training.

2. PURPOSE

This policy enables the academic staff members to identify any gaps in skills and to offer additional support with language, literacy or numeracy to assist students to manage the requirements of their course of training.

3. SCOPE

This policy/procedure applies to all prospective students.

4. DEFINITIONS

LLN: Language, Literacy, and Numeracy

Language: Means the method of human communication, either spoken or written, consisting of the use of words in a structured and conventional way, including any nonverbal method of expression or communication such as a language of gesture and facial expression.

Literacy: Mean the capacity, confidence and disposition to use language in all its forms. Literacy incorporates a range of modes of communication including music, movement, dance, storytelling, visual arts, media and drama, as well as talking, listening, viewing, reading and writing.

Numeracy: Numeracy involves using some mathematics and to achieve some purpose using the numbers in a context.

5. IMPLEMENTATION

5.1 ACCM recognizes that students come with a vast range of skills, experiences, motivations and capacity to deal with the challenges required when commencing training. With this view, ACCM will ensure that students are supported throughout the completion of their training in all aspects of Language, Literacy, and Numeracy. ACCM will not discriminate against students who are identified to need LLN assistance.

5.2 At ACCM, LLN needs will be identified in pre-enrolment assessment of the student and /or during student orientation. Each student will have to take the LLN assessment as per the level of the qualification that the student wishes to study at ACCM. LLN Assessment is considered to be a mandatory requirement in the process of admissions and enrolment.

5.3 ACCM will endeavor to establish Students LLN information prior to course commencement. However, should a Student's LLN needs are not identified until the course has commenced, ACCM will analyse these needs and provide a strategy for assistance. During the course study, the LLN needs can also be recommended by Trainer/Assessors. These needs will be addressed through classroom learning and assessment activities over the duration of the program.

5.4 In case the student is identified requiring more support than the LLN support extended at ACCM, ACCM may refer students to English language programs to external providers depending on the specific needs/requirements of the student.

5.5 In developing training and learning materials, ACCM will ensure that respective LLN requirements of specific units of competency or training packages are integrated into learning and assessment materials. Accordingly, ACCM will embed LLN principles within its delivery and learning and assessment tasks based on the specific Employability Skills and training package requirements.

5.6 ACCM will ensure that the training staff members have the required knowledge and skills to manage LLN issues as they arise; and engage in professional development activities.

5.7 ACCM will ensure that the training staff members implement appropriate strategies to assist the students who need LLN assistance with their learning and maintain fairness, confidentiality, and equality in dealing with them.

5.8 ACCM will use a range of LLN assessment tools to determine the required LLN assistance prior to and after enrolment, including the Australian Core Skills Framework (ACSF) as a reference to assess current LLN skill levels.

6. CONDITIONS

6.1 LLN Test is a mandatory requirement for every student at ACCM.

6.2 The onshore student will be asked to take the test prior to issuing a letter of offer. In case this is not possible then the LLN test will be administered on the day of the orientation.

6.3 If the student is offshore, then the student will be administered the LLN Test on the Orientation Day.

6.4 If the student still does not satisfy the required level in Learning and Numeracy skills, then he/she will be given additional support in the identified skills gap.

7. RESPONSIBILITY

The admission staff members must ensure that LLN assessment, relevant to the courses/qualifications being undertaken and is offered to all new students prior to their commencement.

The training staff members (e.g. trainers/assessors) are responsible for identifying and reporting LLN needs of the students during their training and providing support in implementing LLN strategies where needed. The Training and Administration Manager is responsible for effective implementation and management of this policy as well as provision of information on ways to resolve complaints of breaches of this policy.
